Dakota Dunn

dakotadunn84@gmail.com
(816) 674-8550
www.dakotadunn.com

Junior Front End Developer / Consultant

Sidekick Web Studio (May 2018 - Present)

> Collaborate with team members to build client sites using multiple frameworks and libraries

Student Leader

Grow with Google & Udacity (January 2018 - November 2018)

> Assisted students with understanding core front end development concepts, preparing their resumes and portfolios for the start of their career hunt, and organizing meetups

> Received scholarship from Google to complete a front end developer training course created in conjunction with Udacity

Business Developer & QA

CSC Global (April 2016 - Present)

> Work with Fortune 1000 executives to provide SaaS, web based, or outsourced solutions

> Raised over $1.25M in new recurring annual revenue

> Awarded Business Developer of the Year for 2016

> Test client facing web content for bugs and ensure consistent positive user experience

Project Team Leader

Xceligent (May 2014 - October 2015)

> Led the marketing and client acquisition teams for a commercial real estate database service

> Trained new market analysts (teams 8-15 in size) on how to conduct quality research processes, utilize the internal CRM and external databases, reconcile data to ensure accuracy, and represent the company professionally during corporate outreach

Education

University of Central Missouri (Graduated May 2014)

> Graduated with a Bachelors of Science in Business Administration and a major in Business Management

> Affiliations: DECA, Small Business Technology and Development Center, Integrative Business Experience, Experience Based Learning, & Honors College